From the Director of Missions

I am writing this after the April Quarterly Meeting at Green Hill. Matthew and his team at Green Hill were great. They served a great meal and the fellowship we had around the mealtime was wonderful. I am grateful for the message that Dr. Jeff Pate brought to the Association and his words of encouragement and our need to move forward as a team was spot on. I am so grateful for this good meeting.

I want to thank all the churches that will be considering helping us repair the roof at the office. We sent out letters to the churches and also shared this need at the quarterly meeting. Please prayerfully consider helping us fix the roof.

I also want to thank the team of associational leaders who helped plan and work together with the Momentum Rally that happened Sunday evening. None of this would have been possible without the resources and work of the NC Baptist Be-Do-Tell team. I appreciate Spencer for hosting the February and March events. Bruce Caldwell and his team at Spencer were great. Colby Fagan and Jody Hartman were key, and I wanted to thank them personally.

I would be remiss if I didn't thank Matthew Moore, Scott Huffine, and his wife Natalie, Armando Rodriguez, Jody Hartman, Teresa Sams and, also, Kisha McDowell from (The Source Ministries). The team worked well together, and I really appreciate how everyone stepped up to make all these meetings so successful.

We want to thank God for the 20 decision that were made by the youth at the rally. Our prayer has always been that we could begin to touch Rutherford County and the youth who are the future of all we are doing. In touching the youth for Christ and then guiding them as they take Christ back to their school is something to think about.

So, I want to praise our God and the Lord Jesus for working through the churches in Green River and the surrounding counties. May He be glorified in all we do.

Because of Calvary,

David
